Registration conditions

You have the possibility to cancel the course after the first lesson. In this case, the course fee will be entirely reimbursed. The institute must be notified in written form about the premature termination of the course directly after the first lesson. If the course is terminated later, the complete course fee must be paid. An absence from the course must be notified at least 24 hours before the beginning of the lesson. Otherwise we will have to charge it unfortunately.

I have received a copy of the registration. I have read the above and agree with it.
